RE: Dennis Sumlin v. Heyday Wellness, LLC. DOCKET NO. 1:25-cv-715
Letter to show cause

Dear Judge Cave,

The undersigned represents Plaintiff Dennis Sumlin in the above-referenced matter. We write in response to the Court's Order to file for Default Judgment by April 21, 2025, in which the order was dated March 31, 2025. Plaintiff filed a Clerk's Certificate of Default and Affirmation in support on April 4, 2025.

The Court has ordered that Plaintiff to file his default judgment motions by April 21, 2025. Plaintiff respectfully requests a brief extension of thirty (30) days, through May 21, 2025, to respond to the Court's Order. As of April 21, 2025, Plaintiff was contacted by Defendant's counsel that they intend to make an appearance and respond to the complaint accordingly. Plaintiff has consented to Defendant's request to allow a 30-day extension of time to allow Defendant to file an appearance and a response to the complaint. This request is made to allow Defense counsel sufficient time to thoroughly research and address the legal issues and respond to the complaint.

This is Plaintiff's first request for an extension of time. In spirit of good faith efforts, Plaintiff is requesting an extension of time to file the default motions by May 21, 2025. Additionally, Plaintiff and Defendant also requests that Defendant be given this time to file an appearance and a response to the complaint. The requested extension will not impact any other deadlines in this matter. This request is made by Plaintiff and Defendant.

Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant a thirty (30) day extension file the motion for default. We thank the Court for its consideration of this request.

Respectfully Submitted,
